Approved 6/27/10, Revised 12/14/16, Revised 3/25/25

Wireless Internet Policy

The library provides free wireless internet access to patrons who bring in their own laptop or other wireless device. The library's public wireless network may be used by any patron during normal operating hours.

By choosing to use this free wireless service you agree to abide by the library's Internet Use Policy that prohibits abusive or illegal activity while using the library's internet service. This policy can be found on the library's website: http://www.chililibrary.org/

This service is free of charge and subject to the terms and conditions as follows:

Limitations and Disclaimers

- The library assumes no responsibility for any changes to system configurations, equipment stability, or general functionality or integrity\security of data resulting from connection to the public wireless network.
- Patrons are advised that the network is not secure, and that the library cannot be held accountable for the results of third-party data capture.
- Library staff will not handle or configure patron's equipment including laptops and wireless devices.
- The library does not guarantee a wireless connection can be made.
- The library assumes no responsibility for the security of equipment. Users must keep equipment with them at all times.
- By using the Mobile Printing Service, a personal computer or mobile device can print to the library's printer from anywhere inside or outside the library.
- The library reserves the right to disable the wireless network at any time and without notice.